

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS: Orchestra Conductor

Posted April 11, 2012

The Longy School of Music seeks a dynamic individual to serve as an Orchestral Conductor of String Ensemble in our Saturday Preparatory Studies Program. Candidates must be string players (violin, viola or cello). We are looking for a high caliber musician and conductor who has a passion for working with young string players ages 9-14. Special consideration will be given to those who are committed to helping us build and grow a strong orchestral program at Longy with an interest in exploring innovative programming. Saturday availability is required.

Date of appointment: Fall 2012

Application Deadline: April 20, 2012

Candidate would possess:

- 3-5 years experience conducting a youth orchestra, preferably ages 9-14
- Positive reputation for working with youth ensembles/students
- Ability and willingness to reflect and grow as both a teacher and conductor
- An entrepreneurial spirit and ability to work collaboratively with Longy faculty and staff
- BM or MM in conducting preferred but not required

Candidate would demonstrate the ability to:

- Broaden students' horizons and encourage them to explore music in a variety of ways
- Practice creativity in working with the orchestras
- Maintain a flexible and positive attitude
- Work in a variety of musical styles and have a willingness to explore new genres with students
- Take part in Orchestral Department meetings and events as well as school wide events and meetings

Candidate would possess excellent organizational and communication skills with the ability to:

- Communicate both orally and in writing with family members, teachers, and staff
- Understand and carry out oral and written instructions
- Meet schedules and deadlines
- Read, interpret, and apply School rules, regulations, and policies
- Effectively interact with children, family members, teachers, staff, and the public as a representative of the school

Candidates for the position must have a well-established record of accomplishment as a teacher and performer. Candidates should possess a strong connection to Longy's mission to prepare musicians to make a difference in the world. An advanced degree or demonstrated equivalent is required.

TO APPLY

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, résumé, and list of references to Cristina Catt, Associate Director and Voice Faculty, Community Programs, Longy School of Music of Bard College: cristina.catt@longy.edu

ABOUT LONGY

The Longy School of Music of Bard College is a conservatory and community music school founded in 1915, located near Harvard Square in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The School's 150 faculty members provide instruction in two programs: Conservatory (approximately 210 students pursuing diplomas and degrees) and Community Programs (approximately 250 adult students and 700 students 12-months to 18-years old). For more information, visit Longy on the web at www.longy.edu.

The Longy School of Music of Bard College is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, marital or veteran status, or age.