

LONGY SCHOOL OF MUSIC COMMUNITY PROGRAMS: PIANO TEACHER

Posted November 1, 2011

The Longy School of Music seeks a Piano Teacher for the Community Programs Division. Special consideration will be given to those who are committed to building a strong studio at Longy, have a passion for working with beginners of all ages, are comfortable in a variety of musical styles and who have innovative ideas around how to engage students. The candidate should be comfortable teaching both private and group lessons. Teaching hours would take place Saturdays and weekday afternoons/evenings. Saturday availability is required. Candidates should possess a strong entrepreneurial spirit and have ideas around ways to recruit new students into their studio.

Date of appointment: based on availability

QUALIFICATIONS

Candidate would possess:

- A passion for working with beginners in private and group lessons
- Ability and willingness to reflect and grow as a teacher
- An entrepreneurial spirit and ability to work collaboratively with Longy faculty and staff

Candidate would demonstrate the ability to:

- Broaden students' horizons and encourage them to explore music in a variety of ways
- Practice creativity in teaching styles and approaches
- Teach a variety of ages and abilities
- Maintain a flexible and positive attitude
- Recruit students into the program
- Work in a variety of musical styles and have willingness to explore new genres with students
- Take part in Piano Department meetings and events as well as school wide events and meetings

Candidate would possess excellent organizational and communication skills with the ability to:

- Communicate both orally and in writing with family members, teachers, and staff
- Understand and carry out oral and written instructions
- Meet schedules and deadlines
- Read, interpret, and apply School rules, regulations, and policies
- Effectively interact with children, family members, teachers, staff, and the public as a representative of the school

Candidates for the position must have a well-established record of accomplishment as a teacher and performer.

Candidates should possess a strong connection to Longy's mission to prepare musicians to make a difference in the world. An advanced degree or demonstrated equivalent is required.

TO APPLY

Interested candidates should send a cover letter, résumé, and list of references to Cristina Catt, Associate Director and Voice Faculty, Community Programs, Longy School of Music: cristina.catt@longy.edu

ABOUT LONGY

The Longy School of Music is a conservatory and community music school founded in 1915, located near Harvard Square in Cambridge, Massachusetts. The School's 150 faculty members provide instruction in two programs: Conservatory (approximately 210 students pursuing diplomas and degrees) and Community Programs (approximately 250 adult students and 700 students 12-months to 18-years old). For more information, visit Longy on the web at www.longy.edu.

The Longy School of Music is an Equal Opportunity Employer and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, sex, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, marital or veteran status, or age.